Golden Grads
I've had the extreme pleasure of participating in many retreat offerings over the years at the Servite Center of Compassion. Each time I arrive I feel warmly welcomed, experience profound spiritual sharing and leave with a sense of personal growth and a deepened commitment in my Christian journey. The Servite Center for Compassion feels to me to be a sanctuary gathering souls and a port from which prayerful living is sent out to the world.

Julie Klahn

I enjoy attending the “Friday Films” because they are always about important topics in our world, and give us information to find ways to make our environment better. Also the social discussion after is a good way to involve others in our thoughts. There are always different opinions on the topic, and we can look at the other side of the issue. The snacks are a nice bonus. Joanne Bruckner

The “Institute of Compassionate Presence” broadened my life perspective, knowledge and, especially, my heart through the inspirational speakers, universal prayers and activities, community of diverse people, and the loving-kindness by the staff. I am forever grateful to have made the decision to be part of ICP!” Wendy Everson

I have been blessed the last few years to be accompanied on my journey by a compassionate spiritual director at the Servite Center. On several occasions, when faltering in being my “best self,” she has gently helped me to see God’s hand in the events of my life. Jeanne Ward

In spite of dealing with various aging developments, I am finding the “Yoga for Seniors and Others” class a wonderful way to engage in a wholistic exercise practice. Our instructor, Dawn, has a down to earth philosophy which includes “if it hurts don’t do it” and “don’t fall down”. She is most helpful in creating accommodations for those poses which may be difficult for some of us. Rosie Volkmer

What I especially like about having therapeutic massage with Sr. Linda is that she pays attention to the area of my body that needs more help that particular month. She has the ability to give various levels and types of massage and she is respectful of whether I prefer to talk during the massage or be silent. I feel peaceful from the moment I enter the door to the Servite Center, walk down the long hallway and enter the massage room. Sr. Linda’s warm greeting sets the tone for a wonderful hour of relaxation and rejuvenation. Sharon Nelsen

My most significant experience at the Servite Center was participating in the “Institute of Compassionate Presence,” an 8 month program. The program has grown and evolved, yet it remains a dynamic, insightful, powerful experience of the many ways to live out a compassionate life in our world today. My experiences during the Institute profoundly changed my life. The impact has continued to the present. This was a life-giving opportunity! Bonnie Ware

Sara Thomsen sang many original songs while accompanying Sr. Joyce Rupp.
Our gathering at the “Day Away for Caregivers” was an inspiring time for me. It was a preparation for what was to come. My husband is in hospice now here at home and for now I am his primary caregiver. There were many helpful things offered that day. Being able to ask for help and ways to nourish myself were two important things I came away with. Mary Regan

Serving on the Advisory Committee gives me the opportunity to be a sounding board for the Sisters as they consider what programs to offer through the Servite Center of Compassion. Tremendous creativity and prayer go into programs designed to deepen compassion in our daily lives as the gifts of various presenters are matched with the desires and needs of our local community. I am delighted to be part of a team that supports and affirms them in that process. Christine Malloy

The atmosphere at the Servite Center is welcoming and hospitable. I always feel more mentally rested when I have been at the Center. It is an oasis in the clamor of the world. Ella Jane Bailey

“Summer Salads & Spirituality” brings together the best of the season: healthy, delicious salads and interesting speakers presenting intriguing topics! I look forward to these luncheons every year and invite friends to join me. It’s simply my favorite summer event. Judith Barnes

One day I walked into the Servite Gift Store and was so happy to see objects beautifully displayed, which I had made and donated to the store. I talked to someone who had purchased a baby afghan. She was so pleased to have found it. It made my day to realize that I had made someone happy while contributing financially to the Servants of Mary! Marlene Rowe

Whenever I hear of someone who has been diagnosed with cancer I tell them about the St. Peregrine Program and ask if they would like to be enrolled in it. They are always so appreciative of the prayers and support of the Program. I regularly attend the St. Peregrine Mass to pray for all those who have reached out for prayers. I am glad to be a part of this important ministry. Dorothy Insolera

Seven years ago I learned of the Institute of Compassionate Presence program offered at the Servite Center of Compassion. I participated in it and it was a wonderful experience! Since then I have met many of the Sisters and have participated in several small groups and retreats - each of which has been an enriching experience. The Servites have been a wonderful spiritual anchor for me. Always, very warm and welcoming, I feel very much at home in their presence and at the Center! Ginny Feeney
Dear Friends,

Yesterday afternoon was a beautiful spring day with blue skies, beautiful flowers, and newly leafed trees; perfect for the outside May Crowning at Marian. Very early this morning, a hail storm destroyed the pergola in our Healing Garden, took out all the newly planted flowers in the Garden and cemetery and put holes in 43 of our screens. This afternoon, however, is once again a sky-blue, beautiful spring day. A few minutes ago I watched as two of our high school students placed a new crown of flowers on Mary’s statue in the circle drive to replace the one blown away by the storm. All is “back to normal!” It’s amazing how things can change so quickly.

Things do change; sometimes quickly and sometimes over a period of time. Things have definitely changed since any of us entered the Community. In spite of this we still want to do all we can to remain a viable presence in the Church today. In order to continue to do so, we Sisters will be gathering from July 10-15 for a Community Assembly to discuss who we are and how we live our charism. Over the last couple of years we have been reflecting on the passage from Scripture that states, “Behold I am preparing something new; can you not perceive it?” This summer our theme is: “What Do We Do Now That We Know?” We have spent the past 18 months reading, praying, and spending our monthly faith sharing gatherings reflecting on numerous aspects of our ministries, community life and the various realities of our strengths and limitations. Now that we have learned what each other thinks about these issues, we need to work together to develop plans for moving forward. Basically we need a strategic plan that helps us continue to share our charism with the Church today. We also will look at our ministries and our availability to minister. This may involve the possibility of refocusing how we provide these services. Care for our elderly and long-term use of our Motherhouse will also be reviewed.

Because we are small in number (70 US Sisters) we are able to gather together and share ideas. We need to involve all of us because the future for which we plan is for all of us. We also need to look beyond our US borders and consider our whole Congregation. To help us do that, we have invited any of our Associates who are able to join us along with our International Council and some representatives from France/Belgium, Canada, the UK and the Congo. It is our hope that their presence and sharing will broaden our perspective.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we listen to the Word of God in each other to plan our future. Pray that we will be open to where the Spirit is leading us. In our next issue we will let you know how our gathering went.

Gratefully,

Sr. Mary Gehringer, OSM

Servite Sister brings South African values to Omaha area

By Clara Wertzberger, Marian High School Class of 2016 Reprinted from (Marian Magazine) with permission

If someone was to look at the life of Sr. Justina Tsoku, OSM, he or she would learn that a person’s roots have a huge impact on who they are. Sr. Justina was born in Heidelberg, South Africa. Her family foundation is incredibly strong and, according to Sr. Justina, different than what many Americans are used to.

“... In my culture, you are never on your own,” she said. “Here, you reach 18 years [of age,] they give you a car, they give you the keys, and you are out on your own. This doesn’t happen in African culture ... You belong to the family from childhood to adulthood.”

Sr. Justina’s mother had a strong devotion to the Sorrows of Our Lady. Though Sr. Justina did not know much about women’s religious orders, she began to learn a lot in a short amount of time.

“My last year in high school, I was educated by Dominican Sisters. My mother grew up in Lesotho, and many times she talked about the Holy Family Sisters she had known,” Sr. Justina said. Justina’s mother was also a member of the Solidarity of Our Lady of Sorrows, and further encouraged her daughter to pursue vocational life.

At the advice of a local Servite priest, a 17-year-old Justina decided to join the Servants of Mary in Swaziland. Her mother and family were overjoyed. Sr. Justina became a teacher, the typical ministry for a Servant of Mary, and taught a variety of subjects to the children in Swaziland. In addition to teaching math and English (and everything in between), she also had to teach in multiple languages, including South African Dutch, Zulu, Sotho, English, and Swazi. Throughout her lifetime of teaching, Sr. Justina was able to travel around the world to places like Germany, Ireland, and Rome. Sr. Justina is currently trying to learn Swahili to strengthen the connection between the Servants of Mary here and the Sisters in the Congo.

To continue her ministry as a teacher, Sr. Justina came to America twice for education: first for a Bachelor’s in Social Services, then later a Master’s degree in Religious Studies. In 1984, she transferred to the Servants of Mary in Omaha. She began teaching religion to freshmen in Room 205 of Marian.

“Coming to Marian High School was a new experience and challenge in many ways, leaving one continent for another, and culture for another,” Sr. Justina said. “The welcome I received was awesome.”

Spanish teacher Molly Raabe ’89 was one of Sr. Justina’s students in her second year of teaching. “Sr. Justina is one of my favorite teachers,” Raabe said. “She really inspired me to learn another language and to do the very best I can ... She gave us a worldview which, back in the 80s, maybe not everyone was exposed to.”

Sr. Justina said when she would tell that statement to Americans, many would not understand. However, she believes that this saying is a powerful tool for Marian students, especially anyone discerning their future.

“... There should be an inner feeling that you are not alone,” Sr. Justina said. “Therefore, this intertwining and interrelationship means you do matter in the lives of others and the lives of others do matter to you ... We are connected.”

Sr. Justina did not limit herself to teaching. She was a certified Home Health Care Aide, and, even after retiring, still visits the elderly at Skyline Retirement Community just across the street from the convent. Sr. Justina has spent her entire life endlessly devoted to others, never considering personal gain and always hoping to improve the lives of anyone she can. She can do this, she said, because of her upbringing.

“We have in our culture a saying [Nelson] Mandela used to say: ‘I am because you are. You are because I am,’” she said. “Your existence depends heavily on me, and my existence depends heavily on you.”

Compassionate Presence

By Maria Farrell, Director of GriefWork: A National Servite Ministry of Compassion

The Servants of Mary charism is to be a compassionate presence in the spirit of Mary, and nowhere is that more evident than through the GriefWork ministry. So what does it mean to be a “presence” to someone who is grieving?

Many times our first desire is to offer comfort to someone that has suffered a loss. But is offering comfort really being present? When we comfort someone, we are trying to ease their physical discomfort and/or pain. We console our loved one in hopes they will be less unhappy, less sad. We try to “fix” their grief.

When we are present and supportive to someone that is grieving, we are letting them know we are there to help carry the weight of their loss and to provide assistance and encouragement. Being present and supportive shows a desire to provide help to someone dealing with grief, not to “fix” it and make it go away.

What does being present and supportive look like? Here are a few suggestions:

1. The loss of a loved one is a difficult situation and so many times we feel we don’t have adequate words or the right words to say. Instead of focusing on the words that are aimed at “fixing” the grief, focus on the person grieving. Ask how they are doing. Listen to what they say.

2. Many times we find ourselves asking the griever to let us know what they need help with. It may be useful to offer specific help. What specific things can you do? Help with carpool, grocery shop, attend Mass with them, go to the post office and pick up stamps for the thank you cards that will be sent. Make a list of ways you can assist the person before seeing them.

3. Listening is a skill. Listening without offering an answer or opinion requires practice. Many times, talking to someone who will simply listen is often exactly what a griever needs. “Talking things out” or telling their story can help organize thoughts and feelings. It provides an opportunity for them to find their own answers.

4. Be available to the griever by letting them know they can call at any time and really mean it. That call may come in the middle of the night. Are you prepared for that? You can also check in once in a while. They griever may want to talk, they may want to take you up on your offers of help or they may not. Being supportive means you accept their decisions without judgement or taking it personally. What’s important is they know you are still willing to offer your support!

5. Remember that the hurt continues for months, even years after a death. Checking in after a longer period of time will let the griever know that you understand their pain didn’t end with the funeral, that life doesn’t “just go on”. It reminds them you will be present and supportive over time, however long that may be.

Sometimes changing the way we approach a situation opens our eyes to new opportunities. Practice changing focus from someone looking to comfort, to becoming someone who wants to be a supportive, compassionate presence. Changing the way you view your role can change your approach, and that can make a profound difference in someone’s grief journey.
GriefWork Welcomes Sr. Kerry Larkin, OSM

By Maria Farrell, Director of GriefWork: A National Servite Ministry of Compassion

Originally from Sioux City, Iowa, Sr. Kerry grew up with eight brothers and sisters. She entered the Servants of Mary after high school, and has ministered in various capacities and spent many years as an educator. She earned her Master’s Degree in Christian Spirituality at Creighton University. For the first thirty years of her religious life, Sr. Kerry taught first grade. Most of her time was spent teaching in the Omaha Archdiocese, and she also taught in Colorado and Iowa. When asked about her experience teaching first grade, Sr. Kerry said, "I loved teaching first grade. It was amazing to watch how each child grew from the beginning of the school year to the end of the school year".

For four years Sr. Kerry was the Motherhouse Coordinator and oversaw the healthcare unit in the Motherhouse. She also was the Associate Director for the Community’s Associate Program for eight years. In 2007-2015, Sr. Kerry was the Associate Director at the Jesuit Retreat House, in Oshkosh, WI. The summer of 2015 brought Sr. Kerry back to Omaha. For the past two and a half years she has been part of the leadership team. “It has been both a privilege and a joy to be back in Omaha working with and for my Community once again.

Throughout all of my experiences the one thing that has stayed the focus and center of my life has been to deepen my own personal relationship with God and to grow in my own understanding of God’s love and faithfulness to me”.

Together, Sr. Kerry and Maria will continue to expand the service offered through the GriefWork ministry and provide training throughout the country.

A Great Few Weeks Deserve a Hearty “Thank You”

By Tom Marasco, Director of Development

As the Development Director for the Servants of Mary, many people know me as the “appeal guy”. It’s true that most of the information I put out does include an appeal to our friends and family for a financial gift to be sent in. At two recent events, I heard more than a few times “I see your name all over, thank you for doing what you do for the Sisters.” I can tell you with pride and gratitude, that it is my pleasure to be doing this work for this group of women. Today, it is my turn to relay my thanks to you, our friends, family and benefactors. The last few weeks, we had several events that I am extremely proud of and want to tell you about.

On May 25th, the Servants of Mary once again participated in Omaha Gives. Omaha Gives is a one day event to raise money for your favorite non-profit organization. In the past, we have used the funds to advance our Peregrine and GriefWork ministries as well as fund some of the cemetery renovation project. This year, our goal was to collect funds for the Chapel roof repairs. A couple of weeks before Omaha Gives, however, we had to adjust a little bit. A storm that blew through the Omaha area knocked over the pergola on the west side of the Healing Garden.

After assessing the damage and doing some initial clean up, it was determined that we would have to rebuild vs salvage what was there. Due to that, we decided to utilize some of the Omaha Gives funds for the construction of a new pergola. Our monetary goal for this year was $15,000. I am happy to report that we collected $14,125 that day! Although just short of our goal, it was another year of increased donations over last year, and once again, a record for us! The Omaha Community Foundation, the event sponsor, will once again be sending out matching funds based on their formula that factors in organization size, number of unique donors, dollars collected, etc. We hope to see an additional amount equivalent to 10% – 15% of what we collected that day. I know that the Sisters are extremely grateful to all that made donations that day to help us with our projects.

On June 12th, we hosted the Golden Grads from Marian High School Class of 1966. This was one of the larger groups we have hosted, having almost 50 alumnae and several spouses and guests came as well! What a terrific turnout. A special thank you to Sue Kratochvil from Sue’s Creative Catering for the fantastic brunch she catered. We were treated to fruit trays, pastries, egg bake and French toast that all in attendance raved about! After brunch, the ladies spent 35 minutes in happy, joyous, sometimes loud and animated, conversation catching up with friends they hadn’t seen in a while. We then went to the chapel for 11:00 Mass where the alumnae took active roles in the Mass – musicians and singers, petitions, readings, offertory, class reflection, etc. Thank you to Fr. Mike Eckley from St. Pius X for saying Mass for us. After Mass, the classmates gathered for some pictures, some visited the Healing Garden and cemetery, and after a little more conversation, they parted ways with many hugs. We were proud to have two Sisters in the Golden Grad group – Sr. Mary Gehringer and Sr. Caroline Turnovsky. Congratulations to our two Golden Grads!!

On June 14th, we hosted a party for the 10th Anniversary of the Servite Center of Compassion. We celebrated “All that has been, and all that will be.” The event was held in the Mary Joy and Tal Anderson Performing Arts Center at Marian High School. We had a great crowd of 135 Sisters and guests! Our food was catered by Eddie’s Catering here in Omaha. Eddie is the uncle of our own Sr. Midge Petersen. I want to thank the crew from Eddie’s for their fantastic work that night! Also, thank you to Mark Pettit, owner of Pettit’s Pastry’s, for donating one of the dessert cakes for the evening. The party started with cocktails and hors d’oeuvres along with a lot of great conversation amongst the guests. We were then treated to presentation from Sr. Margaret Stratman, Director of the Servite Center, and Sr. Val Lewandoski. They spoke about the ten year history of the Servite Center and all of the different programs run from the Center. They showed a brief video that covered the ten years as well. We were then entertained by Sr. Joyce Rupp and musician Sara Thomsen. This performance was a mix of poetry read by Sr. Joyce and follow up original music performed by Sara, all focused on compassion. Sr. Joyce and Sara have such a great chemistry on stage and they both connected with all of our guests on many levels. From thought provoking poems and song lyrics, to singing along on song refrains and even a few hand movements in time with the music. Everyone left the auditorium with smiles on their faces and inspiration in their hearts. After the performance, we ended the evening with dessert and more conversation. The event was a success and all of our guests shared in a very special evening with us.

I would also like to thank the following people for their help on these projects. Nancy Casey, Alumnae Director of Marian High School, who helped with the Golden Grad event. Eric Phipps, Head of Maintenance at Marian, for his help with the 10th Anniversary event. My staff members Linda Hubbard and Josh Langel. They were instrumental in all parts of the marketing, setup and everything that goes into these events. My fiancé Kim Godinez who volunteered to be the photographer and my helper at the Golden Grad event and also helped with a lot of the setup and tear down of the Anniversary event. I am blessed to have such wonderful people to work with.

As you can see, in a 3-4 week time span, we had a lot to do and accomplish. All three of our events were successful because of the support we get from you. Going online to donate for Omaha Gives, praying for our Golden Grads, attending the Anniversary event or making donations to underwrite it or sponsor a sister to attend. Without your support, we never leave the starting block. Without your desire to give back to the Sisters, we never leave the starting block. For this, I say THANK YOU to all of you for your continued unconditional support of the Servants of Mary. As the person who is known as the “appeal guy”, my greatest pleasure is being able to reach out and share my thanks and gratitude to all of you. I have the honor of being the bridge between a great group of religious women who have dedicated their lives to serving others and all of the people who love and support them in their calling. I am so appreciative to be the one to bring these two groups of people together through many various events and programs. God’s peace and blessings to all of you.
A ribbon cutting ceremony was held when Marian opened the new Bluetique. School President Mary Higgins (center), and Principal Susie Sullivan (Second from the right) were amongst those ribbon cutters.

Marian May Queen, Kateri Determan, places a crown of flower on Mary’s head.
We know that St. Peregrine, a brother in the Order of the Servants of Mary (Servites) is the Patron Saint of Cancer and other Life-Threatening Diseases. We have a special Mass, at the Servants of Mary Chapel, on the third Saturday of every month for those with cancer and their care-givers. All are welcome to this mass, as we pray to find healing, support and peace for all with serious illnesses. But did you know that St. Peregrine was also the Patron Saint for our Youth at Risk?

St. Peregrine lived in a time of great change in society, when many young people had lost their connection with God and the church. Many turned to self-destructive behavior. In fact, as a teenager Peregrine was the leader of a street gang and about as far away from Christ as we could imagine. Yet he changed his ways through prayer and guidance by a Servite priest, and discovered a real purpose in life by serving the sick and poor. St. Peregrine is truly a saint for our times.

In July, the St. Peregrine Mass will be on the SECOND SATURDAY of the month, July 9, 2016 due to the Servants of Mary celebrating Jubilees on July 16, 2016.

Bill Altman and Bill Agnew shared their experiences of working in Nigeria during their Summer Salads & Spirituality talk in the Servite Center.

"Hope: Connecting Hearts for Nigeria". For several years many volunteers have joined the group to build schools for the children in southern Nigeria. Bill Altman, affectionately known as Uncle Bill to the Nigerians, has been significantly involved since the beginning. Both Bills shared how this experience has made them much more grateful for what they have and more committed to sharing their blessings and skills with those in need.

We Want Your “Likes” and “Shares”!

Please check our social media sites regularly for updates, photos and general information on what the Sisters are involved in currently. Our website, facebook and twitter pages are updated regularly with photos of the Sisters and other happenings around the Motherhouse.

Our social media sites continue to gain in popularity each quarter. Our numbers are up on both Facebook and Twitter. We are now up to 698 followers on our Facebook page – an increase of 33 followers in the last quarter! Like our page and invite others you think would enjoy it, and help us get to our next goal of 725 followers. We are at 137 followers on Twitter – an increase of 11 followers. We are hoping to reach 150 by the end of August. Please help us spread the word by liking our pages and sharing our posts with your own social networks. With your help, the Sisters can connect with more friends and spread the word about our ministries.

If you are a graduate of a Catholic school in the Detroit, MI area, I invite you to check out www.bishopgallagher.org and the FaceBook group “I Went to Catholic School in Metro Detroit” (search for this group from your FaceBook page). There is a lot of history and great interaction from people you may know.
